

Baha'i World Wide Conference and Celebration Schedule
Capitol Hill South-East Baha'i Community

You are invited to join our youth as they discuss the importance of building a world based on the principles of the oneness of humankind, justice and freedom from prejudice. Each Sunday the youth will explore these themes and share their experiences. Our purpose is to build a new pattern of community life encompassing all people—to arise and contribute to the advancement of civilization.

Zoom log-in information (same each week)

Zoom: 989 3519 3713

Password: 458828

<https://zoom.us/j/98935193713?pwd=TkUzdWheUm1NOFpnM3FWK3JZVGpxQT09>

Theme	Activity	Time and Date
Session 1 — Working for the betterment of the world and living together in concord and harmony – a Vision for Humanity from Baha'u'llah	This week the youth are hosting their friends from Navajo Preparatory School in a cultural exchange. Come and learn about their lives, experiences, and culture.	Sunday, April 10, 2022 11:00 am – 12:30 pm
Session 2 — Building families and serving the community - Reflections on how far we've come!	This week the youth will share stories, videos and photographs of what they have accomplished over the last 15 years. From camping trips, community service projects, and children's classes – we've come a long way! (Part 1)	Sunday, April 17, 2022 11:00 am – 12:30 pm
Session 3 — Building vibrant communities	This week the youth will continue to reflect and explore what it means to build vibrant communities, where they are now, and provide a vision for tomorrow! (Part 2)	Sunday, April 24, 2022 11:00 am – 12:30 pm
Session 4 — Educational endeavors and the training institute (The primary, the most urgent requirement is the promotion of education.)	This week the youth will discuss the importance of education at home and in their schools. The youth will also reflect on the role devotional gatherings and service projects have played in their lives.	Sunday May 1, 2022 11:00 am – 12:30 pm
Session 5 — Contributing to social transformation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Social action ● Participating in discourses of society 	This week the youth will explore the importance of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging. The youth will reflect on the power of "Service" and the importance of the Baha'i Principles of Consultation, universal participation in elections, and governance.	Sunday May 8, 2022 11:00 am – 12:30 pm